Hi Deb!

I'm glad I met you this year. You're great to have around even if sometimes you get too sarcastic for me! maybe you & Steve will get down (joke) but I know you'd love every minute of it. I hope we stay buddies forever & we do alot of crazy things but I wouldn't want it any other way. I sure do hope we'll see alot of each other this summer & bayonbay am I glad schools almost out! Stay the way you are!

P.S.

By the way I adopted you as my sister, aren't you pleased? Bye sis!

Love,
Boog

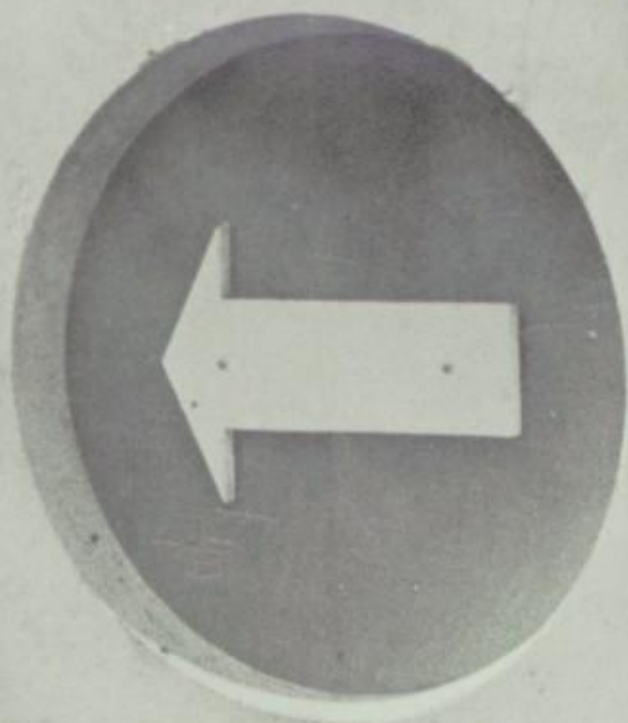

Since you're mad that I signed more in Andre's than in yours I guess I'll be nice & finish what I started! Since I know you want to hear conceited things I'll say you are my cutest, sweetest, friendliest, wierdest, dingiest, dingiest & favorite & best friend I have (even tho I'm lying! we'll get together this summer & cause trouble, okay?)

P.S.

I was only joking about all those flattering things - they're true! Aren't I sweet?

Love,
Boog

HIGH SCHOOL LIBERTY

Debbie!

Howdy! Well, we've just barely survived another year of school. If it weren't for A Lunch, we couldn't have made it through the day! Always remember this profound saying: Get Really Stoned (Eat wet cement!). Call me this summer so I won't sit there taking bong hits and wonder, "What's Debbie doing now?!!?" (just kidding Mrs. Jensen!)

Nick Montecalvo, Mark Taylor, Kathy Newman, Mr. Showalter, Connie Burke, Rob Jarvis, Laura Michael, Kevin Olson, Mark Reynolds, Jeff Gustafson, Michele Reed, Vicky Philliburg, Louis Peterson, Robin Broad, Renee Cristiansen, Cindy McCormack, Roxie Hart, and Charleen Michael did a terrific job at performing at many different events.

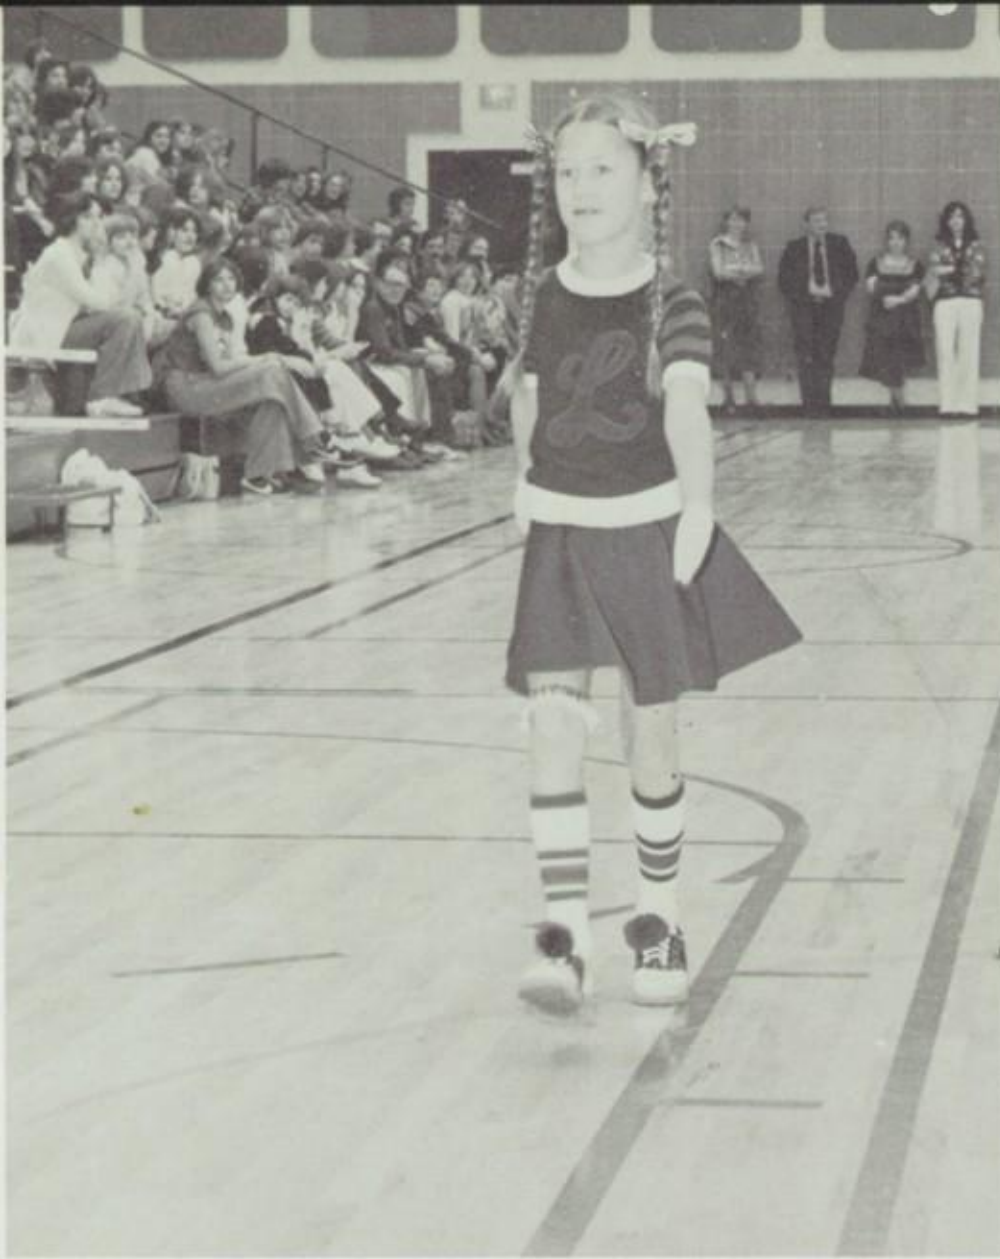

Liberty's first Drill Team (sometimes in this first edition, the word "first" might appear too often) must be accorded "first of the first". These 21 girls who executed brilliant drills designed by Dana Perfect and Michelle Marshall were the hit of the year.

Dance committee did an outstanding job of organizing different bands, and making posters to please the student body. Pictured above from left to right: Becky Pegg, Julie Johnson, Crystal Pape, Dale Bambrick, Mike Rogers. Seated: Mindy Russell, and Jamie Raines.

The service club, with Mr. Wilson, managed to handle the unpleasant jobs of handling tickets at the school games, and distributing programs. They also sold candy canes around the Christmas season, and brightened up the holidays.

Dana, being Perfect, demonstrates her unique talent on the typewriter.

Creating the first newspaper at Liberty, naming it with great originality, "Liberator" the unfunded, unloved, and often unappreciated group struggled through the year under the direction of Mr. Spahi.

For better or for worse, this group of courageous people led by the intrepid Mr. Shinkoskey fought budgets, deadlines, equipment, printing salesmen, photographers, and septic tank trucks.

The product, our first Patriot yearbook, may stand the brunt of time because, in spite of its quality, it is truly, a first edition and hopefully will become a collector's item.

Liberty High School, planned in 1974, did not begin construction until early 1975. Standing forlorn and lonely, vandalized frequently it did not open until the levy passed allowing it to open in 1977.

With music man "Oats Reeves" heading the cast, our two high schools joined forces for this first production. Orchestra under the skilled baton of Carl Showalter concentrated on the difficult score more heavily than tone, but the whole group was given a good hand.

Debbie,

Here we are going into the big 11th grade, just think 1 more year after that and we'll be out of school and cruising around everyday instead of only on the weekends. It was really nice knowing you since the 7th grade. Have a wonderful summer with all the big hunks of men (SAVAGE)
Probably see you this summer.

Debbie,

Well we have had one heck of a year. And I only have one left and you have two. (Ha. Ha)
I hope you make the best of your high school years. Thank you for all the times you went to lunch with me. We will have to go to the state park a lot this summer and pick up some guys. Third period was a real blast and I'm glad you were in there to make it that way. I hope you get everything out of life that you want, I'm sure you will because you're the type of person who makes the best out of any situation. The best of everything to you.

Love ya much,

Kelly Updike

P.S. I still think my brown flowered blouse looked nice on you besides a little big.

Debbie,

I am sure glad I got to know you this year. It was really fun and we have two more years together. I will see you next year. I got the best page in all the yearbooks.

Happiness always

My and Kelly's name on the same page. (alright). Hope to see you this summer sometime. Give me a call (226-8246) sometime or Kelly you and I and whoever you bring can go to the beach or something. So good to me. The Hell got to go. Love Allen Smit
